Your Prayers.... My fuel.

By Mike Curry

I am forgoing my normal writing this month in order to ask you to pray for and with me. I leave August 10 for East Africa (Kenya/Tanzania). As you see above, my trip will take 20 days, covering over 17,000 miles, as I visit 16+ towns and villages preaching/teaching an estimated 35 times (or more).

I was physically born for this type of trip. My body, even at the maturing age of 62, handles travel stress well. I was spiritually “born-again” for this. My calling and gifting is to “...reprove, rebuke, and exhort...” (2 Tim. 4:2) while training and equipping leaders in the local church and in itinerant evangelistic ministries.

All expenses have been covered for this trip, so this is not a support raising letter. (Might want to file this one away? It is pretty rare!!)

However, I do need something from you. Something more precious and costly than money.

Teresa and Ineed your prayers.

The obvious issues of health, safety and flight connections are always needed on any trip. That is especially true on a trip of this expanse and duration.
